

SOCIETY

THINGS social in Honolulu have taken a decided slump for the older set at any rate. The younger society set are holding the center of the social stage, for the days and nights are filled with their social activities. Morning swims, tennis, trampolines, shooting, golf, teas, dinners and dances keep the younger set more than busy. With so many home from the states it is small wonder that their friends want to shower them with attentions. Within the last two weeks two brides and grooms of decided local interest have arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Galt and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Schaefer, Jr. Then Miss Phoebe and Miss Elizabeth Carter returned this week and two weeks ago came Mrs. E. A. Jones and her three daughters, Miss Helen, Margaret and Kathryn. Miss Ruth Gartley was also an arrival so one may see it is the young society element that has kept the social bee buzzing. Miss Angela McManus, who came to be maid of honor at the Richards-Midgitt wedding, has become a great social favorite, being bright, witty and clever. She leaves for her Eastern home next week to the regret of all. The transport leaving this noon carried away a lot of very popular service people.

In fact the posts are thinned considerably by this exodus of officers and ladies. The next transport may order a lot more away, and so it goes; they come and they go with Honolulu always regretting their departure, for they are in almost every case charming people. Their hope always is that they may be sent back here some day, for Honolulu is as dear to the hearts of those in the service as it is to those of us who belong in this beautiful and wonderful land.

MAUI GIRL'S ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Miss Marie Emma Fogas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fogas of Kailua ("Fogues"), Maui, has been engaged to Mr. Edmund A. Pickett, who has been announced, is a surprise to her many friends. The wedding will take place at the home of her aunt, Miss Jane Fogas, in Santa Clara, Cal., in the spring. After the marriage the popular couple will return to where their new home is being built at Kailua, Maui. Mr. Pickett came to Hawaii about two years ago and is with the East Maui Irrigation company. He is from Fresno, Cal.

CLUB GIVES CARD PARTY

The Evergreen club held a card party and social Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore A. Scharlin on Kilauea street.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Mr. Sweeney was the gentleman of the evening and Mrs. Scharlin the lady of the house.

Refreshments were served by the entertainment committee.

Monday evening will be the next business meeting of the club, a number of new members will join this evening.

This club was organized for the army and navy young men stationed in and around Honolulu, and it is meeting with large success. The object of the club is to promote social welfare and entertainment, dances, card parties, picnics, etc., will be held weekly.

Mr. Leon Perry of the Medical Supply department, Honolulu, is president. Miss Augusta Wiebe is treasurer and Mrs. Mae E. Scharlin is secretary. Mr. Horace Hilliard, Port Engineer, is chairman of the membership committee. All cards for applications should be addressed to him, or P. O. box 185, city.

FAREWELL GATHERING

A reluctant farewell is being said today to Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter, wife of Colonel Hunter, who will return to this city. While here, she has been the guest of Mr. Albert Edward Gillespie at Clay street, her friends taking advantage of the opportunity of greeting her informally during the brief period of her stay here.

Mrs. Hunter was stationed in this city for a long time and enjoyed a social popularity that few attain. Her departure for Honolulu a year ago was attended with sincere regret; nor, in fact, have her friends ever quite recovered themselves to that fact. Hence, a gathering of a few months after her arrival in the islands, commemorated Mrs. Hunter's return to the United States a few months ago and she visited Mrs. Gillespie on route to the East. Rest and relaxation there have completely restored her strength, as her friends have noted with much satisfaction.

For the purpose of saying good-bye to this attractive woman, a number of her close friends gathered yesterday at the home of Mrs. Gillespie to enjoy an informal hour over the tea-table. Among those who shared in the afternoon's pleasure were: Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Louis Chappellier, Major and Mrs. Thomas Craven, Captain and Mrs. Thomas Smith, Captain and Mrs. Julius Moore, Mesdames Hunter, Liggett, John Gardner, Charles H. Holbrook, Elizabeth Pratt, Harry Davis and Martha Pratt Connelan.—San Francisco Chronicle.

MRS. BENJAMIN J. EDGER'S INFORMAL TEA

Mrs. Benjamin J. Edger was hostess at a very small and informal tea on Wednesday afternoon. Those enjoying this pleasant affair were Mrs. Raymond Bliss, Mrs. Eugene Hartnett, Madame Callender, and Mrs. George R. Callender.

THE HARDIGGS LEAVING

Capt. and Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg are leaving on today's transport. They plan to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John McCandless in Piedmont and then go to Evanston, Ill., for a short visit with Capt. Hardigg's family. From there they will proceed to Syracuse, N. Y., where Capt. Hardigg will join the 38th Regiment, Mrs. Hardigg going to Virginia for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary O'Brien. The Hardiggs have been here nearly three years and are among the most popular of the younger members of Fort Shafter's set. They have a large circle of friends here who regret their departure and hope that some day they will come again. Mrs. Hardigg is a niece of Mr. John McCandless, Mr. James McCandless and Mr. L. L. McCandless.

DR. AND MRS. JAMES JUDD'S DINNER

Dr. and Mrs. James Judd entertained last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Todd of Virginia. The table was very pretty. A basket filled with a freak "shower," which so far is without name, but is a cross between a cassia fistulus and a cassia grandis, ornamented the table center. The blossoms tint from lemon shade to a rose pink.

Dr. and Mrs. Judd's guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder, Dr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Hiedemann, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hemenway.

PRINCESS KALANIANA'OLE IS HONORED

Princess Kalaniana'ole was the complimented guest at a Chinese luncheon on Tuesday over which Mrs. Robert Shingis presided as hostess. American Beauty roses made the table very attractive. Bridge and music made for a charming afternoon. Those invited by Mrs. Shingis to meet the princess were Mrs. W. Kea, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mrs. John Dane, Miss Richardson, Mrs. Samuel Woods, Mrs. Henry Beckley, Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mrs. Elizabeth Booth and Mrs. William Lucas.

MRS. A. FALKE'S LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. A. Falke entertained with a luncheon at her home in Kalihi today. Twelve guests were seated and a charming luncheon enjoyed.

MRS. J. F. C. HAGENS' LUNCHEON

Mrs. J. F. C. Hagens was a luncheon hostess on Thursday. The guests motored to the Peninsula early in the morning and enjoyed a delightful day with this charming matron. Mrs. Hagens' guests were: Mrs. Ernest Ross, Miss Imogene Burr, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane and Miss Kaula Kaula. Bridge and sewing were the afternoon's diversions.

MISS MCMAUS COMPLIMENTED

Mrs. Jack Guard entertained on Thursday afternoon in compliment to Miss Angela McManus of Boston at a swimming party at the Outrigger Club. After a most enjoyable dip in the ocean tea was served at small tables under the hau tree. Those invited for the afternoon were: Miss Angela McManus, Mrs. Van Anderson, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Harry Irwin, Mrs. Percy Nottage, Mrs. Stanley McKenzie, Mrs. Arthur Gilman, Mrs. Jack Young, Mrs. Ned Loomis, Mrs. C. Jenkins, Mrs. William Hoogs, Jr., Mrs. Cyril Hoogs, Mrs. Dave Larsen, Mrs. James Morgan, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Dottie Ballentyne, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Letitia Morgan, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Maud Ballentyne, Miss Marr and the hostess.

COMING DRIVING CONTEST

At the Country Club next Friday afternoon at a quarter after two the ladies in the golf tournament will have a driving contest. Every woman who has signified her willingness to be in the contest is urged to be in attendance, as without everyone being present the attained result is not so satisfactory.

A SWIM AND TEA AT THE OUTRIGGER

A jolly set of young people, on pleasure bent, are enjoying a swim and tea at the Outrigger Club this afternoon. Those in the party are Mrs. Oswald Lightfoot, Mrs. Shirley Bush, Mrs. Charles Littlejohn, Mrs. C. W. Carpenter, Miss Violet Lucas, Miss Deanna Madson, Miss Matilda Madson, and Miss Margaret McCarthy.

MISS MARGARET HAWK'S 500 PARTY

Miss Margaret Hawk was hostess on Monday afternoon at a 500 party, honoring Rachael and Ilma Woods, who left Wednesday for the East where they will enter school in the fall. Miss Hawk's guests were Miss Rachael Woods, Miss Ilma Woods,

MRS. HENRY F. WICHMAN'S LUNCHEON

Mrs. Henry F. Wichman was a luncheon hostess on Friday of this week. The circular table held for a central ornament a black flat dish with leaves of the cadmium plant, a most artistic and unique ornament. After luncheon bridge and knitting was the diversion. Those invited by Mrs. Wichman were Mrs. E. A. Jones, Mrs. H. Alexander Isenberg, Mrs. Walter Dusenberg, Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Alison Jordan, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth and Miss Margaret Walker.

MRS. WALTER DUSENBERG HONORED

Mrs. Walter Dusenberg was the motif for one of the largest luncheons given this season when Mrs. H. Alexander Isenberg entertained in her honor. The luncheon was given at the pretty Kahala home of the Isenbergs. A large ten was erected over the pergola, which overlooks the ocean, and here the guests were seated at small tables. It was all delightfully informal. The tables were pretty with their baskets filled with sweet peas. The large living room in the house was filled with cut flowers. Informality was the keynote of this delightful affair. After luncheon knitting, chatting and bridge kept the guests until the sun rays were slanting deeply toward the West.

Some among those noticed were Mrs. Walter Dusenberg, for whom this affair was given; Mrs. Emmet May, Mrs. Edward Dusenberg, Mrs. H. F. Wichman, Mrs. Arthur F. Wall, Mrs. James D. Dougherty, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Mrs. Philip Spalding, Mrs. Alexander G. M. Robertson, Mrs. Alison Jordan, Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, Mrs. Augustus E. Murphy, Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, Mrs. Herman Pocke, Mrs. E. R. Stackable, Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mrs. E. Groton, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. Newton Locke, Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. William Whitney, Mrs. Emma Macfarlane, Mrs. A. Wirtz, Mrs. Wallace R. Farrington, Mrs. F. W. Klebahn, Mrs. E. P. Bishop, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. E. A. Jones, Mrs. Harry von Holt, Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mrs. Elizabeth Waterhouse, Mrs. Herbert Walker, Mrs. John Waterhouse, Mrs. E. W. Jordan, Miss Agnes McIntyre, Mrs. Myra Angus, Miss Jean Angus, Mrs. Ernest Ross, Mrs. Sherwood Lowrey, Miss Marie von Holt, Mrs. C. M. F. Forster, Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Mrs. von Damm, Mrs. Frank Richardson, Miss M. McIntyre, Mrs. C. Dunkhase, Mrs. Laura Wright, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Miss Bertha Young, Mrs. C. C. von Emma, Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Miss Bertha von Taylor, Mrs. Ismay Stubbs, Mrs. W. Singmaster, Mrs. Charles Weight, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Katherine von Holt, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Kathryn Jones, Miss Ehrhara, and Miss Margaret Walker.

PROF. AND MRS. A. L. ANDREWS' BRIDGE PARTY

Prof. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews entertained on Monday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Schmutzler, who leave shortly for a sabbatical leave. It was a very simple, informal evening, in keeping with the times. When scores were counted it was found that Mrs. T. Edgar Robinson had scored highest of the women and was presented with an Oriental silk bag, while Mr. Matthew Graham, for top scoring, was given a copy of "Friends of France." The guests of honor were given sets of coat hangers in a case.

Prof. and Mrs. Andrews' guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Schmutzler, Mr. and Mrs. George Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel De Forest, and Mrs. T. Edgar Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Dean, Judge and Mrs. Antonio Perry, Prof. and Mrs. Herbert Walker, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Warren, Lieut. and Mrs. Conery, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Clark, Mrs. L. M. Smith, Miss Bernice Smith, Miss Katherine Woodford, and Mr. Frank Woodford.

MISS BEATRICE CASTLE HONORED

Mrs. Henry Damon complimented Miss Beatrice Castle on Wednesday by having a very informal tea for her, as she leaves shortly for the mainland. Miss Castle has been one of the most prominent workers in Allied relief work, which started with the outbreak of war in Europe.

MRS. W. H. BROWN A BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. Raymond W. Ellis, who left for San Francisco on today's transport, was the guest of honor at a small informal bridge on Tuesday afternoon given by Mrs. W. H. Brown at her Beach Walk home. The guests were Mrs. Raymond W. Ellis, Mrs. George Callender, Mrs. Frank West, Mrs. Robert Duennner, Mrs. W. J. Clark, Mrs. Clarence Bell, and Miss Ann Johnson. The prizes, Japanese bowls, were won by Mrs. F. West and Mrs. W. J. Clark. The guest-gift, a lacquered tray, was given to the guest of honor.

Mrs. Harvey V. Murray and Clarence Murray left for Vancouver last evening.

Mrs. Murray will remain in Vancouver until Dr. Murray leaves for France to join the colors as a medic, then Mrs. Murray will return here in time to place Clarence in school.

THE ISENBERG DANCE

Alexander Isenberg and Rudolph Isenberg were hosts at a dancing party at their Kahala home on Thursday evening, entertaining 90 of the younger set. Kahala is an ideal place for a dance, as it is wind-swept from each side and the Isenberg home a lovely one to hold a dance in. Refreshments were served in the pergola overlooking the water. Mrs. Alexander Isenberg was hostess at her sons' party and a charming hostess she was. Mrs. Isenberg's sons are students at Berkeley, and until they have graduated Mrs. Isenberg will be away from Hawaii more or less. Later she hopes to make her home here where she is so well known and so beloved.

MISS DOROTHY PEACOCK GIVES A LUNCHEON

Miss Dorothy Peacock entertained a set of young girls at luncheon today. The table was very dainty with pale pink carnations and pink Mexican creeper and asparagus vine. After luncheon knitting was the diversion. Those enjoying Miss Peacock's hospitality were Miss Elizabeth Wall, Miss Marjorie Booth, Miss Janet Kilbourne, Miss Elvira Church, Miss Gusie Mann, Miss Sadie Carey, Miss Margaret Hoogs, Miss Jessie Baldwin, Miss Virginia Frear and Miss Gertrude Frear.

MR. TWIGG SMITH'S EXHIBIT

Mr. Twigg Smith, the artist, is leaving Honolulu shortly to go to France to join a body of artists who go to make themselves useful at the battlefield. Mr. Smith has on exhibition a number of pictures he hopes to sell as he receives no salary for his war work and the sale of the pictures will enable him to get to France just that much sooner.

Miss M. Huff is an arrival in Honolulu, coming on the Matsonia for a visit with her niece, Mrs. Benjamin L. Edger of Wylie street. Miss Huff is a member of one of California's oldest families. This is her first visit to Hawaii, where she has a large circle of friends.
